A MUSICAL MEMORY Entertainment Artist Contract
(716) 238-5992 amusicalmemory.net

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- The agreement of the Artist of performance is subject to detention by sickness, accident, act of God or conditions beyond the Artist's control. If such an event prevents the Artist from performing, the deposit will immediately be refunded to the Purchaser and the Artist will have no further liability or responsibility under this contract.
- Purchaser and Artist further agree that, except as provided in the paragraph above, this contract is not subject to cancellation unless both parties hereto have agreed to such cancellation in writing and such written cancellation is delivered to the Artist at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the hour the performance is to begin.
- For the true and faithful performance of all the covenants and agreements herein mentioned, the Purchaser and the Artist bind themselves each unto the other in the penal sum of the amount set forth in this Contract as liquidated damages to be paid by the failing party.
- This instrument contains the entire agreement between the parties and no oral statements, promises or inducements made by any party hereto or agent or representative of either party hereto, which is not contained in this written contract, shall be valid or binding and this contract shall not be enlarged, modified, or altered except in writing, signed by the parties and endorsed herein.
- The person executing this contract on behalf of each party represents and warrants that he or she is of legal age and has the authority to enter into this agreement. Should he or she not have such authority, he or she personally accepts and assumes full responsibility and liability for payment to the Artist under the terms of this contract.
- Purchaser and Artist further agree that if this contract is subject to cancellation within sixty (60) days prior to the day the performance is to take place, the purchaser shall forfeit their deposit/retainer.
- Party of the second part shall be responsible for supervising behavior of people attending the performance. If guests' behavior becomes intolerable, and after calling this to the attention of the party of the second part and said condition is not corrected, party of the first part has the right to end the performance without refund.
- Costs of repair/replacement of equipment as a result of audience action, theft, or fire in venue is the responsibility of the Purchaser.
- Purchaser and Artist agree that receipt of this signed contract and commencement of performance shall be confirmation of all terms of the contract and shall be binding on all parties.
- If any check of the purchaser or any check of a party of the purchaser should have to be returned, the purchaser shall be responsible for a RETURNED CHECK FEE OF $45.00
